BREAKS A TRACK RECORD

BONNIE KELSO REDUCES PIMLICO MARK FOR MILE AND AN EIGHTH.

Takes Principal Feature of Card for R. F. Carman Who Seems in Fair Way to Duplicate His Canadian Successes at Maryland Track.

Baltimore, Md., October 18.—R. F. Carman, who scored a long string of victories on the Canadian circuit, promises to continue his success at Pimlico. The Carman stable furnished the winners in two of the races again this afternoon in Sir Aivescot and Bonnie Kelso, both of which scored in easy fashlon. Archibald had the mount on both the Carman horses and each found strong support from the public. It was a great day for form followers, six of the seven races being won by favorites.

Bonnie Kelso's victory came with the running of the Pimlico Country Club purse, the feature of the program, and it marked a brilliant performance on the part of this consistent racer. In the early stages of the trip jockey Archibald took Bonnie Kelso back and indulged Hampton Court and Practical with the lead, but when released from restraint the Carman horse moved up courageously and, taking an easy lead in the stretch, drew away in the final furlong to win by a couple of lengths. The time for the aille and an eighth, 1:51\(\frac{3}{2}\), was a new track record for the distance, the previous mark being 1:53\(\frac{3}{2}\), made by Blue Book October 26, 190\(\frac{3}{2}\). Easy made amends for his fallure in the Matron Stakes by beating a shifty lot of youngsters in the fifth race. It was S. C. Hildreth's intention to run the colt without blinkers today, but his assistant falled to ask permission of the stewards in time and Zeus wore the badge of the rogue again this afternoon. Zeus only won by half a length from Meridian, but the margin would have been much greater had he not been inclined to loaf after getting to the leaders. Meridian pulled up lame in this race. The Belvedere Steeplechase furnished a stirring contest, the winner turning up in Waterway, which came from behind on the last turn of the field and castly disposed of Merry Man at the end. The latter showed a fine turn of speed for a mile and the pair fairly flew at the fences. Aunt Jule was the only one of the five starters. Aunt Jule was the only one of the five starter

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. U. Strode, manager of the Tampa and Pensacola tracks, was in Chicago yesterday on business connected with his racing enterprises.

Ed Cole and W. R. Norvell, who respectively officiated as presiding judge and racing secretary at the recently ended Dufferin Park meeting, have put in an appearance at Baltimore.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., president of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses, is an enthusiastic member of the State Executive Committee of the Democratic party in New York.

H. Tillott, at the close of the Dufferin Park meeting at Toronto last Saturday, donated the four-year-old bay coll, Royal Oak, by Sempronius—Miss Thomas, to the Canadian National Burean of Breeding.

Secretary Fraser of the Ontario Jockey Club has one to Louisville to look into the working of the pari-mutuel system. The system as operated in France will also be examined before the decision is made as to what method will be introduced here.— Toronto, Globe.

Toronto Globe.

J. O. Keene will take Miami, Boggs, Tahoe, Shooting Spray, Zahra, Cisko and Twilight Queen to California besides the yearlings that he will select from the Camden string. St. Helier, Phele G., Miss Greenwood and Gertrude G., which have been racing at Ogden under the direction of G. H. Keene, will join the establishment at Oakland.

Annual conscription in France has deprived cross-country racing of one of its best jockeys in Aleo Carter, whose father, the late Fred Carter, trainer for Monsieur Delamarre, and born in France, rendered his children liable to military service. He is destined to take his place in the ranks of the Twenty-third Dragoons at Vincennes, where one of his brothers is now serving, along with Lucien Robert, also a jockey and the son of the trainer of that name.

Frank O'Neill, the American rider

Frank O'Neill, the American rider, stands at the top of the list of winning jockeys in France, and with such a powerful stable as that of W. K. Vanwith such a powerful stable as that of W. K. Vanderbilt bids fair to maintain his position up to the derbilt bids fair to maintain his position up to the order of the season. His riding has attracted general attention and, being a nice weight, he is often seen in the saddle. G. Stern comes next. Next on he list comes C. Childs, who won his first Grand Prix on Nuage. He is followed by Banat, who, in turn, finds J. Jennings close behind him with a very good record for his years. J. Reiff, since his return from Germany, has done well and returned to his old form.—London Sportsman.

GOSSIP FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Cal., October 18.—Upon his return to the coast from his eastern trip, President T. H. Williams of the New California Jocky Club announced that besides the stakes that had been offered, there will be handicaps of $700 and $900 and purses of $400 and $500 at Oakland the coming winter for the good horses that will be shipped to the coast.

MIDDLE-CLASS VETERANS OF RACING

In the list that follows is a record of the racing and earnings of a number of horses long in the public eye and still in active service. Aunt Polly is the senior of these veterans and despite her many years of track service has raced to good purpose this year and has preserved her speed remarkably. None of these veterans has made a racing return of as much as $10,000 and all have won more than $8,000. It is quite probable that several of them will pass over the $19,000 mark in the course of the racing of the coming winter. Such horses as John Griffin II., Alma Boy, Ben Double and Eyebright should do it without much trouble unless some ill fortune overtakes them. Some consideration of the records of these familiar horses is commended to readers of Daily Racing Form. Aunt Polly, ch. m. (1898), by Nephew-Lillie

Baltimore, Md., October 18.—Naushon and Olambala have run their last races for the season of 1910. After the Yankee two-year-old's victory in the colt end of the Matron Stakes here Saturday, R. T. Wilson, Jr., said that he would not ask either of them to race again until 1911. "They have been useful horses this year." the president of the Saratoga Association explained, "and Naushon, which is better perhaps that he was at Saratoga, might win another race or so. But he has no more valuable stake engagements and ordinary purses are beneath the dignity of a horse of his class. I am fond of Naushon. He is an old-fashioned horse with a stout pedigree, and he is distinguished for his courage.

the dignity of a horse of his class. I am fond of Naushon. He is an old-rashioned horse with a stout pedigree, and he is distinguished for his courage. He has speed a-plenty when he is made to show it, he handles weight admirably and he will go all day. The fact that Naushon looks and is as good a horse today as he was on the occasion of his first appearance under colors at Belmont Park last spring indicates a rugged constitution, and I have a notion that it will take a mighty good horse to beat him over a considerable distance of ground next year."

Mr. Wilson will ship Naushon with Olambala to Belmont Park, where he has wintered since Morris Park was abandoned, immediately after the Pimlico meeting, but Thomas J. Healey will take a division of the Jamestown Jockey Club, November 1 to 28.

Olambala will forfeit one engagement at Pimlico, the will not start in the two-mile Bowie Handicap on the last day of the Maryland Jockey Club's meeting, for which he is top weight. Mr. Wilson thinks it time to retire Olambala, because the little chestnut has lost the dash which characterized his racing in the summer. In the absence of Olambala the likeliest of the Bowie candidates are Countless, Bonnie Kelso. Hampton Court, Jubilee, Superstition, Bob R., Uncas Chief, Woodcraft and Fauntleroy. The last named has recently been acquired from S. C. Hildreth by H. C. Hallenbeck, for whom Frank Taylor trains.

Olambala was beaten at Fort Erie in the $10,000 Dominion Handicap by Jack Atkin and John Reardon, but his admirers will forget all about that and remember him as the winner of the Suburban, Commonwealth, Brighton, Saratoga and Champlain Handicaps and the conqueror of Ballot, Dalmatian and King James. The Ornus colt has the advantage of most good horses that retire at the finish of a successful four-year-old season in that he is sound of wind and limb. There is no outward and visible sign that the hard campaign he has undergone this year has hurt him, and both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Healey are confident they can bring him to the route traveler ratner than the sprince, one small.

WHITNEY SHIPMENT TO ENGLAND NOV. 5.

New York, October 18.—Harry Payne Whitney has made arrangements to ship his crack $30,000 filly, Bashti, to Europe on November 5, with twenty-two Brookdale-bred yearlings which will bear his colors in two-year-old races in England next year. Bashti has already been transferred from Pimilco to Brookdale Farm, where she will get a bit of rest, Bashti, with which Mr. Whitney hopes to win the Epsom Oaks next summer, has a brilliant turn of speed, she is as game a juvenile as ever stood a drive and her smooth, frictionless action suggests the route traveler rather than the sprinter, but she is small.

The yearlings that will go abroad with Bashti are Brookdale-bred sons and daughters of Hamburg, Burgomaster, Adam and Broomstick. They have been tried at Mr. Whitney's farm by Edward C. Taylor, manager of the stud, and they are the pick of the crop. They will leave Brookdale the afternoon of November 4 and be loaded aboard one of the Atlantic transport liners at this port November 5.

ROUGH RIDING ABOUNDS

JOCKEYS AT CHURCHILL DOWNS POSSESSED WITH SPIRIT OF RECKLESSNESS.

Aspect of Several Races Changed by Offensive Tactics-Cherryola Wins the Cherokee Selling Stakes with Ease.

Louisville, Ky., October 18.—The Cherokee Selling Stakes at one mile, which featured a rather ordinary card at Churchill Downs this afternoon, was taken by Cherryola in a fashion that stamped her unistakably best of the six starters, even though the race was replete with rough riding, from which all engaged suffered. The crowding began immediately after the start, the winner being the sufferer, and Thomas, on Glucose, the offender. Thomas continued his reckless course and at the quarter post forced Huck to take back. Steinhardt, on Alfred the Great, then came along with a rush, displaced Glucose for the lead, and forced him back by pulling over sharply against the inner rail. Cherryola and Prince Gal then came on the outside and forced Alfred the Great back. In the stretch, Cherryola drew out to win as her rider pleased, Prince Gal just outstaying Huck.

Crowding, due to reckless riding, was held responsible for the fall of Dottie B., ridden by E. Martin, in the fifth race. The filly was in a prominent position approaching the lower turn when those closest to her seemingly pulled in and caused her to fall. Martin was lucky to get off with a severe shaking up. The mishap served to defeat County Tax, favorite in the race, as he was forced to shorten his stride perceptibly to avoid falling over the prostrate horse, and Ella Bryson won by a nose. Some of the starters in the closing dash did not escape interference, notably Royal Report, the favorite. Thomas, who had the mount, started off timidity, which resulted in his being cut off going to the first turn. He was forced to go around the others until approaching the stretch turn, where he moved into a contending position, only to be carried extremely wide by Grand on Cariton G.

Salian was also a sufferer from early interference, but saved much ground on the stretch turn. Cariton G. won from him by a head, with Royal Report allength behind the pair.

The opening races, in which the limit number went to the post, were run without undue crowding and resulted in vict

The advance guard of horses will depart for La-tonia tomorrow and as fast thereafter as cars can be secured to transport them. Special trains for racegoers will leave here Saturday night and Sunracegoers will leave here Saturday night and Sunday.

E. C. Martin & Baker's string of three horses arrived last night from Fort Erie and will be raced here until the close. Henderson & Hogan are negotiating for the services of jockey Steinhardt, under contract to William Shields, who wants $3,500 for the transfer of the contract. 'Jockey A. Burton was suspended for the rest of the meeting by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the post in the second race. Henderson & Hogan have sold Star Blaze to C. H. Knebelkamp.

John Shields, trainer of W. G. King-Dodds' racers, came today from Latonia with several horses that he intends to start within the next few days.

The judges will interrogate jockey Martin tomorrow to ascertain the cause of Dottie B.'s fall in the fifth race with a view to punishing the offender. The officials are determined to stamp out reckless riding and offending riders will be dealt with severely.

Ernest L. Featherstone, who came here last week on a hunt for some thoroughbred stallions to ship to Fexas, left without securing any of the horses he desired, owing to the prices asked being higher than he was authorized to pay. He has several horses in view that he expects to secure later, one being the noted Burns Handicap winner, Kercheval, which is said to be done at last with racing.

A yearling by Hastings—Miss Gussle, owned by T. C. McDowell, worked a quarter at Lexington recently in 23\frac{2}{3}, and is considered one of the best racing prospects in Kentucky.

TALENT A-PLENTY AT RACE TRACK

It would only need a good advance agent and a competent ring master to get up a fairly good one-tent circus among the training stables at Churchill Bowns. O. Hak can furnish a trick black bear: J. C. Ferriss and William Grater each have monkeys that "Charles the Great" has little on: G. M. Odom has as fine a specimen of a fox as Col. J. P. Chinn ever chased with his famous pack of hounds, and on has as fine a specimen of a fox as Col. J. P. Chinn ever chased with his famous pack of hounds, and on sever chased with his famous pack of hounds, and on selling plater, and could not be bought for any price.

Among the riders and rubbers are some as sweet voices as can' be heard in the ordinary shows and as clever buck and wing dancers as use their feet to make a living today on the stage. There are musical and some of these stable hands play the violin and plano when such an instrument is at hand.

There are also real comedians among the stables and when in the humor they are most original in their jokes and humorous antics. Many of the best stories told today on the stage originated on the stable hands are at their best when they put the horses away for the noon-day feed and at night when the races are over, and they recite their extended the periences of the day. They are a happy, go-lincky crowd, and rarely ever afflicted with the blues, and lose.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Winner—Br. g. by Flying Dutchman—Black Sleeves (trained by C. H. Hammon).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. BAD NEWS had an advantage at the start and, showing the most early speed, was under restraint to the last furlong, where he tired fast in a driving finish and barely lasted long enough to win. SALLY PRESTON worked through a rough trip in the early running, then finished gamely and would have won in another stride. BANBURY closed a big gap into a close up and game third. THIRD RAIL dropped back after saowing early speed and came again in the last sixteenth. SORROWFUL quit in the stretch. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Went to post at 2:13. At post 1 minute.
Start good. Won easily; second and third driving.
SIR ALVESCOT followed the leaders under slight restraint to the stretch turn, from where he moved up fast and drew away into an easy lead. MALIT INE began slowly but steadily improved her position and finished with a rush. FLORIMEL ran well to the stretch and tired, but outlasted the tiring CHILTON QUEEN. The latter set a fast pace to the stretch and quit. BELLE MAWR ran a bad race. The winner was entered for $1,000: no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Toddington—La Fleur (trained by J. F. Dowdell).

Went to post at 3:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

THE GARDENER left the barrier with a rush and, running into a long lead on the first turn, showed a high order of speed in the early running, then hung on gamely after withstanding a challenge from HILL TOP on the stretch turn. HILL TOP gradually improved his position on the backstretch and moved up with a rush at the furlong post, but tired when the final drive came. QUESTION MARK showed speed but tired after HILL TOP passed him on the far turn. GOLDEN CASTLE ran well. GOLCONDA ran a bad race and is raced inconsistently. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
